SOURCE [REDACTED]

At 1:25 p.m. on 19 November 1951, a train of 10 boxcars, each carrying 20 to 25 soldiers, who wore black-bordered black epaulets and crimson epaulets, was seen en route from Eberswalde toward Britz. Another train of 51 boxcars each carrying about 20 recruits, with black-bordered crimson epaulets, was seen passing through Eberswalde toward Bad Freienwalde at 7:20 p.m., coming from the direction of Fuerstenberg. At 7:10 a.m. on 20 November, about 200 recruits, wearing crimson epaulets, arrived at Eberswalde from the direction of Bernau by regular train. Their destination could not be determined. *
